For a new grave, you will also need to pay for the plot; for an existing grave with a memorial in place, you may need to pay a removal/replacement fee. In addition, the cemetery may charge a number of other fees
For an Attended cremation funeral, the cremation fee . ² In this local area, the typical cost of cremation for local residents is:	£930–£1,030 £930
Please discuss any specific religious, belief-based, and/or cultural requirements that you have with the funeral director

Additional funeral director products and services

This funeral director may be able to supply a range of optional, additional products and services, or to arrange (on your behalf) for a third party to supply them. Examples include:

Additional mileage (price per mile)	£3.20
Additional transfers of the deceased person's body (e.g. to their home, to a place of worship, etc.) (price per transfer)	£250
Collection and delivery of ashes (to a local address)	Free of charge
Funeral officiant (e.g. celebrant, minister of religion etc.)	£110–£220
Services supplied outside of normal office hours	Price on request

The funeral director can give you a full list of what they can supply. They are likely to charge for these additional products and services, so you may choose to take care of some arrangements without their involvement, or you can use a different supplier.

¹ This fee (which is sometimes called the interment fee) is the charge made for digging and closing a new grave, or for reopening and closing an existing grave.

² In England, Wales and Northern Ireland, you will usually need to pay doctors' fees as well. This is the charge for two doctors to sign the Medical Certificates for Cremation.
